

BURTON

Former Ohio Senator Formally Announces Candidacy for President

DECLARATION CINCINNATI MANUFACTURER

For Delegate-At-Large To Republican Convention

FIRST IN EITHER PARTY

To Announce Candidacy For Delegate—Recent Ruling Makes It Unnecessary For Mr. Burton To Make Any Other Formal Statement To Permit Use Of His Name.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Feb. 23.—Former Senator Theodore E. Burton of Cleveland, today filed with Secretary of State Hildebrandt, his formal announcement that he will be a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, in connection with a declaration of candidacy of William Cooper Procter, Cincinnati manufacturer, for delegate-at-large to the Republican convention.

The declaration of Mr. Procter was accompanied by a statement of Senator Burton giving permission for use of his name.

Mr. Procter in accordance with the Ohio primary law, declared his first choice for the presidential nomination is Senator Burton, but did not indicate a second choice. That was made impossible at this time because no other candidate for President on the Republican ticket has notified Secretary of State Hildebrandt of his candidacy. This is the first statement of candidacy for delegate-at-large on either the Democratic or Republican tickets to be filed with the secretary of state.

Secretary Hildebrandt directed that the statement be accepted and placed on file. According to his recent ruling, it will not be necessary for Mr. Burton to make any of the formal statements to permit other delegates at large or by districts to declare their first choice for him.

The form used by Mr. Procter and Mr. Burton had been printed particularly for the Burton candidacy. They said this indicated that a number had been prepared and probably would be distributed among prospective candidates for delegates who wish to declare for Burton as first choice. The blanks bore a line reserved for the name of the delegates second choice, but this was not filled on the Procter declaration.

Five citizens of Cincinnati signed Mr. Procter's statement, certifying that he was a member in good standing of the Republican party.

FREED SUSPECT WILL NOT SPEAK OF GIRL'S DEATH

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Portsmouth, O., Feb. 23.—Prosecuting Attorney J. T. Mickelthwait today awaited the arrival from Ironton of a letter found on the street there yesterday, signed "Estelle," as a possible clue to the identity of the slayer of Estelle Hoesy, pretty 19-year-old factory girl whose body was found, February 10, in Milbrook Park lake here.

The letter was ostensibly written by "Estelle" and was addressed to "Dear Boy." It asks the addressee to meet her in Portsmouth, January 29, the day before she disappeared. It contains the name of an Ironton man which is being withheld by authorities.

Prosecutor Mickelthwait will compare the penmanship in the letter with the handwriting of the Hoesy girl in an effort to determine whether she really wrote it. There was some tendency on the part of officials here to consider the letter a "fake," which had been purposely "planted" in Ironton by some practical joker. There was no envelope found with the letter.

Coroner Daehler was still awaiting today the full report of C. F. Long, Columbus, analyst, on his examination of the contents of the stomach of the Hoesy girl. Long reported yesterday that a partial examination showed traces of carbolic acid.

Frank Mowery, Cleveland boy, was released yesterday following several days imprisonment on a charge of murder in the case, was in Ironton today at the home of his parents. He declined to discuss the case.

Destruction of Zeppelin by French Gunners on Monday Described by an Eyewitness

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Feb. 23.—An eye-witness of the destruction of the Zeppelin L-Z-77 by French gunners on Monday, near Revigny, a town which lies nine miles northwest of Bar-Le-Duc, thus describes the exploit: "Two Zeppelins were signalled at 10-25 o'clock at night by an artillery officer in a listening post in the first line trenches of the Argonne. The night was clear and the wind moderate. The officer could not see the airship, but he heard the noise of their engines and telephoned to the battery base, whence the news was forwarded to the army corps headquarters. All the batteries of the district were at once on the alert and within five minutes searchlights were sweeping the heavens in all directions.

"The Zeppelins were first sighted by an officer commanding a battery of 75-millimetre guns. The nearest was about two miles off, flying at an altitude of about 5,000 feet and rising rapidly. The second Zeppelin was some three miles behind the first. The officer was unable to get the elevation necessary to hit the airship, but he managed to give the exact position to the searchlight operators. From that moment until it was destroyed the first dirigible was never lost to view and the searchlights never left it. As it was moving against the wind its progress was relatively slow.

"As soon as the warning reached Revigny, five automobiles with searchlights and with special anti-aircraft guns manned by naval gunners, started in pursuit. These guns throw a shell which is expressly designed to explode on contact with the aluminum painted cover of the Zeppelins and to burst into flames once it is inside.

"The guns on the moving automobiles opened fire as soon as they came within range. A shell burst just behind the Zeppelin, throwing it into strong relief and immediately the gunners seized their opportunity. Another shell passed over the target and the next of the inflammable type, hit the mark squarely about 75 feet from the stern. There was a shout of triumph from the Frenchmen as the shell appeared to go through the body of the aircraft. A few seconds later two other shells went through the rear of the car, badly damaging the steering and elevating mechanism.

"For an instant nothing seemed to happen and then a thin red line crept along the side of the airship, which shone with a bright ruddy glow, as the flames spread and moved upwards. No explosion was heard as the Zeppelin began to fall. The great mass, now blazing more and more fiercely, descending slowly, while burning fragments of the cover fluttered away in the wind, and all the onlookers expressed surprise that the airship took so long to come down.

"The cargo of bombs, which there is reason to believe were to have been dropped on the inhabitants of Paris, exploded with a terrific roar, as the Zeppelin struck the ground. Fragments of its car were hurled over 2,000 feet away and the remainder of the framework collapsed in a heap, the type continuing to burn for several hours.

The second Zeppelin, which had witnessed the disaster to its companion, turned tail and hurried back to the German lines.

The gun crew which fired the shot that proved fatal to the Zeppelin, will receive prizes amounting to 15,000 francs, 10,000 francs being awarded by a leading Paris newspaper and 5,000 by Marquis Ornano.

Checks for these sums already have been sent to the minister of war for distribution.

STIMSON SHACKLEFORD ESCAPES THROUGH HANDS OF POLICE AND NOW IS IN JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA

Stimson Shackleford bought a ticket to Jacksonville, Fla., Friday morning at 10 o'clock from Pennsylvania Ticket Agent Joseph L. Worth, and left Newark that night on No. 27 at 12:06 a. m., and was due to arrive at Jacksonville Sunday morning at 8:25, provided he made all his connections.

The fact that Shackleford purchased a ticket to Jacksonville, Fla., on Friday morning did not become known to the local police department until Tuesday evening and then only after Agent Worth recognized the picture of his patron in the Advocate. That was four days after the ticket was purchased.

It seems that there has been a laxity in the handling of this murder case by the officials having it in charge. Why did they not take the photograph of Shackleford and exhibit it to the various ticket agents of the city and inquire if they had sold him a ticket. Had that been done Shackleford might have been apprehended at Jacksonville Monday.

An item in a Monday evening paper other than the Advocate said: "Chief Sheridan is very anxious to have the county commissioners offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of the murderer, believing

NEW CHARGE

Against Brandeis Brought Before Senate Judiciary Committee

BY THOSE OPPOSING CONFIRMATION

Testimony That He Was Employed By Harriman

TO GET CERTAIN PROXIES

In Celebrated Fight To Get Control Of Illinois Central Railroad—Boston Jurist's Relations With Equitable Life Assurance Society Also Called Into Question.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 23.—New charges, alleging employment of Louis D. Brandeis by E. H. Harriman to obtain proxies in the celebrated fight for control of the Illinois Central railroad and Mr. Brandeis' relations to the Equitable Life Insurance society were filed today with the senate sub-committee considering Mr. Brandeis' nomination for the supreme court.

Austen G. Fox, a New York attorney in charge of presenting evidence for those opposed to the confirmation of Mr. Brandeis, laid the new charges before the committee and summarized what he expected to prove by witness. In 1907, he said, when E. H. Harriman was fighting Stuyvesant Fish for control of the Illinois Central, Sullivan and Cromwell, Harriman's attorneys, sent Waddill Catlings to Boston, to employ Brandeis, Dunbar and Nutter to secure proxies from Illinois Central stockholders in New England, to be voted against Fish.

"Thereafter," said Fox, "Mr. Brandeis' firm acted for Mr. Harriman, and widely sought to obtain proxies in his behalf. A number of letters soliciting proxies were sent out by Brandeis in his behalf. A number of letters soliciting proxies were sent out by Brandeis, Dunbar and Nutter.

"In 1908, Mr. Brandeis in answer to a charge made by Joseph B. Warner before the legislature committee on railroads of Massachusetts that Mr. Brandeis had acted in behalf of Mr. Harriman wrote to Joseph Walker, chairman of the committee.

"I have never acted directly or indirectly for Mr. Harriman or communicated directly or indirectly with him, or with any one who represented him directly or indirectly; nor have I acted so far as I know directly for any company with which Mr. Harriman was ever connected. No one connected with my firm has ever acted directly or indirectly for Mr. Harriman or for any company with which Mr. Harriman was connected.

Ignatius T. T. Lincoln, naturalized Englishman and former member of parliament who calls himself an "international spy," was taken into custody a few days ago following his escape from Raymond Street jail, Brooklyn. Auto Tag Supply Exhausted; Police May Be Instructed to Arrest No More Drivers

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Feb. 23.—Warden Thomas of the penitentiary today offered to settle the controversy, which has arisen over payment of the state for automobile tags by making them within the prison walls by convict labor at less than 10 cents a pair, or half as much as the state now pays to a private contractor. He said hundreds of prisoners are idle and would be glad for the opportunity to work. Only a comparatively small appropriation by the emergency board would be needed to buy the necessary machinery and equipment for manufacturing tags, he explained. The warden estimated the saving to the state at nearly $25,000 annually.

State officials tried to find some other means, however, of solving the problem which became acute yesterday when the automobile department's supply of tags ran out. State Senator C. W. Wickline of Akron, head of a firm to which Secretary of State Hildebrandt had awarded the contract, declined to furnish more until State Auditor Donahy permits payment for those already delivered, it is said.

Governor Willis' attention was called to the predicament today and the suggestion was made that he advise local police authorities not to make arrests of automobile owners who have not secured 1916 tags until the automobile department is again in position to fill orders.

W. H. Walker, registrar of automobiles, has received letters from motor car owners protesting against the department's tardiness in sending tags, saying they had been threatened with arrest if they continued running their machines with last year's licenses.

Secretary Hildebrandt today would make no statement as to whether he would comply with Auditor Donahy's demand that he be furnished proof that the contract for the tags was let after competitive bids had been received and that the thickness and quality was in accordance with original specifications. The state pays 19 1-4 cents a pair to the Akron company which is said to subcontract the contract to a New York manufacturing firm which supplies them at 15 cents.

VERDUN

French Fortress Object of Great German Offensive Drive

ALONG A TEN-MILE FRONT

Kaiser's Forces Get Within Eight Miles

FIGHTING VERY VIOLENT

Movement Has Been In Progress Three Weeks, Beginning January 29, And Has Resulted In Important Gains—Germans Valiantly Resist All Efforts To Dislodge Them.

The Germans in a great offensive are driving for the French fortress of Verdun and already have succeeded in penetrating two miles into the French lines in the Woerwe region. The drive resulting in this advance was along a ten mile front. It had its impulse almost directly to the north of Verdun where the Germans successfully occupied the Haumont wood and then the village itself, bringing them within eight miles of the fortress. Fighting of great violence is continuing. The present German offensive has been in progress more than three weeks. It has resulted in important net gains for while at some points the allies were able to regain parts of the ground lost the Germans have clung tenaciously to many positions despite all efforts to dislodge them.

Beginning January 29, the German effort was first directed at the much-fought-over ground in the Artois, near the Belgian border, the war office announcing the capture of 1500 yards of French trenches northwest of Neuville-St. Vaast. French positions south of the river Somme over a front of more than a thousand yards also were taken.

The activity slackened for a few days on the German side but the Germans had to submit to numerous French counter attacks which they declare they withstood successfully, retaining virtually all the ground taken.

By February 9, however, the drive had been resumed in the Artois, with the taking of more than 800 yards of French positions west of Vimy reported. These gains were announced two days later to have been contained while shortly afterward the French line in the Champagne were attacked and upwards of 700 yards of trenches, captured. The British lines in Belgium were next given attention and London admitted the taking of 600 yards of trenches near Ypres by the Germans on February 15. Less important gains have also been announced from time to time in various sectors of the front.

The drive in the Artois was resumed this week and yesterday Berlin reported the capture of more than 800 yards of French positions east of Souchez. With it came the advance in the region of Verdun which the French last night admitted was on a wide front and that they lost the wood of Haumont and the Salient in the French line north of Beaumont.

BIANCHETTI IS ON TRIAL FOR MURDER OF DOLORES EVANS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Feb. 23.—Louis Bianchetti, 25 former chef at the Cleveland Athletic club went on trial here today on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the strangling to death of Dolores Evans, 19, an actress in a room in a downtown hotel the night of January 12. The girl's body, nude, was found the following afternoon, Bianchetti was arrested by detectives several days later and brought back here.

New York officers will be witnesses at the trial and will present an alleged confession made to them by Bianchetti after his arrest in which he said he choked the girl when she tried to rob him of $250, and that he left the hotel without knowing she was dead.

The crime was one of the most brutal in the history of the city.

GYPSIES TRAVEL IN AUTOMOBILES; ORDERED FROM CITY

Even gypsies have fallen in line with progress and instead of using the horse drawn vehicles like the tribes for centuries past, they have adopted the automobile as a means of transportation. They often have the police conducted a caravan of three automobiles loaded with nomads to the city's entertainers directed them not to return. The cars were built after the fashion of a bus and the parade attracted much attention.

DENISON WILL ADD A MILLION TO ENDOWMENT

COMMITTEE MET IN CLEVELAND
AND DECIDED TO EN-LARGE WORK.

Architect Employed to Draw Tentative Plans for Group of New Buildings—Granville News.

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, Ohio, Feb. 23.—The endowment committee of the trustees of Denison University met in Cleveland at a recent date, and after reviewing the progress of raising the half million dollar endowment fund decided to enlarge their activities and to enter at once on the work of raising a million dollars to be used for building and endowment. Fortunately, no expense will be incurred for land as the campus is already larger than that of the University of Chicago and there will be sufficient room for all plans made for the future of the institution. Denison now owns 65 acres of land. But before any buildings shall be erected, entire plans are to be drawn by competent architects. The committee voted about for some time for a good architect, and has finally awarded the commission to Ernest Flagg, who is known as the architect of many monumental buildings in this country such as the Corcoran Art Gallery of Washington, D. C., the new Naval Academy at Annapolis, which is considered the most monumental group of educational buildings in this country, costing over ten million dollars. Mr. Flagg already has inspected the campus in Granville and will draw tentative plans which will be submitted to the alumni and trustees of the institution for suggestions. After receiving the criticisms of various educational experts, the plans will be recast and when finally approved, they will be returned to the architects who will then draw designs for the entire group of buildings. A committee on grounds and buildings has been appointed to co-operate with the architects in the manner of designing the college grouping. This committee consists of Henry Sherwin of Cleveland, Ambrose Swasey of Cleveland, Edward A. Deeds of Dayton.

The Washington banquet, which is an excellent social event of the year in Denison, was held last night in the Denison Commons, and was one of the most successful in the long list of brilliant social triumphs during the past thirty years. The dining hall is a beautiful room and lends itself readily to any scheme of decoration.
which last night consisted of banks of palms to screen the musicians, mural painted in green and displaying the National colors; the northwest corner a solid mass of green wherein blazed the class numbers; windows and doors simply draped in green, the only light being that from innumerable candles.
The tables were artistically decorated with red and white carnations, red candles in handsome candelabra and chrysanthemums, and handsome menu cards tied with red ribbon.
Artistically lettered place cards showed the attention to detail which distinguished all of the appointments. After the customary delightful reception in Stone Hall, the company of nearly two hundred proceeded to the dining hall where at 7 o'clock they were all seated, ready to do justice to one of Mrs. Al-troge's famous repasts. Mr. J. L.
Bjelke, as toastmaster, acquitted himself with distinction, and contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the speeches, which were among the best ever heard at an affair of this kind in Granville. Below is the toast list:

at 8:35 o'clock this morning and before the blaze was extinguished by

HUNGARIANS RECEIVED BY PRES. WILSON

EXECUTIVE TELLS THEM THEIR ALLEGIANCE NEVER HAD BEEN DOUBTED.

Deplores Spirit of Some Who Have Misrepresented Those They Professed to Represent.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Feb. 23.—President Wilson told a committee of Hungarians today he had never doubted the allegiance to the United States of the greater portion of foreign-born American citizens and that he recognized that they were just as much Americans as any one born in the United States.
Headed by Alexander Konta of
New York, the committee presented resolutions passed at a mass meeting of Hungarians in New York last month urging allegiance to the United States and declaring they had been misrepresented and slandered by attacks on their loyalty. Konta told the President he represented citizens of Hungarian birth in all parts of the country and that the Hungarians in the United States were absolutely loyal to the nation of their adoption.

"You have thanked me for receiving you," said the President to the committee. "I do not observe any thanks. It is a great pleasure to have received you and a privilege to have seen so many of you upon such an errand. I want to say that so far as my own feelings and opinion are concerned this errand was unnecessary."

"I have never myself, doubted for a moment the feeling that gentlemen such as yourselves have toward America. I recognize you as just as much Americans as anybody born in this country."

"I have deplored, and I am sure you have united with me in deploring the spirit which has been manifested by some who have misrepresented those for whom they professed to speak, and my public profession has been against what they said and against misrepresentations which I felt sure was the sentiment of the rank and file of American born on the other side of the water who have come and enriched America by giving her their talent, work and allegiance."

"So that I welcome this occasion as an opportunity of expressing my unqualified confidence in those thoughtful citizens like yourselves who have allied themselves in heart as well as fortune with this great government which is so dear to all of us which is compounded of all of us and which does not belong to any one section or portion of us."

"I have tried to show on various occasions my passion for that quality which ought to obtain among all those who profess allegiance to the United States."

"I feel highly complimented by this visit and — and I will not say pleased, because I did not need the reassurance—but very much cheered by the message you have brought me."

In his address to the President
Mr. Konta said in part:

"Your Excellency's reception of us is all the proof we want of your faith in our fidelity to the United States. We are not a local committee. We represent our fellow citizens in all parts of the country.
They have authorized us to speak for them, to make renewed profession of our allegiance, is the country believes that to be necessary."

boy's arrest may occur within the next 24 hours.

Members of the Samuel Shackleford family today were anxiously awaiting further word from their son Stimson, who they believe to be in Jacksonville, Fla. Owing to trouble on the line when they were talking to their son Monday evening, the family say they were unable to ascertain what the boy was doing in Jacksonville.

"If we could locate Stimson, we would urge him to return to Newark at once," Mrs. Shackleford said.
"I would not shield my boy unless I felt sure that he was innocent."

Mrs. Shackleford has been ill since the crime was discovered last Saturday afternoon, and today was the first time she has been able to be around.

Police Chief Sheridan this afternoon refused to comment on the fact that Shackleford telephoned to his home here from Jacksonville, Fla.
He would not say whether the department had asked the aid of the Jacksonville police in apprehending the man. "I have nothing to give out regarding the case," he said.

The chief is inclined to be nettled over the publication of the fact that Stimson Shackleford was suspected of the crime. It was his idea, he said, to confront him when arrested with the circumstantial evidence in the hands of the police tending to point suspiciously toward him, in the hope that the young negro would break down and confess.

Mrs. William Means did not get money for her car to Xenia from Stimson Shackleford, according to a statement of her husband,
Dick Means, who says he gave his wife the money. Means admitted that his wife was in Shackleford's company Thursday and that the youth gave her some money, but it was not used for her trip to Xenia,
he says.

Like Adam in the garden, Sam
Shackleford blames all the troubles of his son Stimson on a woman. The father declares the youth would not be in his present trouble if it had not been for women with whom he associated.

He admits that Stimson has been guilty of numerous misdeeds in the past, but denies that this should be held against him in the present trouble.

"I'll bring him back when the proper time comes," said the father last night. "Every time but once when he was in trouble in the past,
I took him to police headquarters myself, and I'll bring him in this time. I don't want him here now because there might be trouble."

The father can not see that the police have anything like a strong case against the youth, claiming that his absence is the only thing to be held against him in the present investigation.

Mrs. William Means did not get money for her car to Xenia from Stimson Shackleford, according to a statement of her husband,
Dick Means, who says he gave his wife the money. Means admitted

held against him in the present
trouble.

WHY WOMEN WRITE LETTERS

To Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

Women who are well often ask "Are the letters which the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. are continually publishing, genuine?" "Are they truthful?" "Why do women write such letters?"

In answer we say that never have we published a fictitious letter or name. Never, knowingly, have we published an untruthful letter, or one without the full and written consent of the woman who wrote it.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and suffering. It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ills, from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, nervousness, weakness, stomach troubles and from the blues.

It is impossible for any woman who is well and who has never suffered to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

How Brave Garcia Escaped the Pirate

(By Harry Selby Fulton.)

Harry Selby Fulton, brilliant newspaper writer and theatrical manager, who died last Monday and whose funeral takes place here tomorrow, did very effective work for New York newspapers during the Spanish-American war. The Advocate has come across the following story, written just eighteen years ago by Mr. Fulton for the New York Telegraph while Mr. Fulton was in Cuba. It is the story of how brave Garcia escaped the pirates, being his own authentic account of some marvelous experiences afloat on the sea. Garcia was a little uncertain as to the difference between "Pirate" and "Pilot," hence his agony and other people's joy. Mr. Fulton's story ran as follows:

We called him "the brave Garcia," because he called himself that, and because he proved himself the very best coward in all Cuba. He was a man of 50 years, an office boy and general nuisance in ordinary to the whole staff of correspondents which the newspapers had sent to Havana hard upon the reception of the news of the destruction of the Maine.

Garcia claimed to be a veteran of the "ten years' war"—the insurrection in which the men of the Virginius came to their deaths. He wasn't—we all knew that—but it was too hot to listen to Garcia's oaths, which were fastened upon the honor of the innumerable saints in the Romano-Spanish calendar.

He was a man of 50 years, an office boy and general nuisance in ordinary to the whole staff of correspondents which the newspapers had sent to Havana hard upon the reception of the news of the destruction of the Maine.

It was a week later. Half a dozen languid Americans were dining in the open front cafe of the Hotel Gran Pasaje. The Prado outside was full of life; the music of a military band sounded soft from the Plaza Central, a block away. Everything was colorful of peace and after dinner dolce far niente; consequently those of the party who were versed in the ways of Spaniards and Cubans were idly wondering what fresh devilry was meditated of the volunteers of guerrillas.

The crash of an overturning chair signaled the approach of the brave Garcia. He dashed down the tesselated gangway between the small tables of chattering diners with the stride of a torreador entering the ring of the Plaza del Toros. The dramatic effect which he had premeditated was spoiled from the circumstance that he carried in one hand a brace of dead quail and in the other a foolish cage containing two little green canaries.

Quail, plentiful in Sagua, were scarce in Havana, and green canaries had a distinct market value with visiting tourists. There was a vacant chair at our table. The brave one, first having carefully deposited his spoil in a place of safety, sunk into its depths with a tragic sigh. Inadvertently, he seized Carey's tumbler of iced red wine and drained it at a gulp. Carey beckoned to the stolid mozo for more and the rest of us waited in the polite silence born of a desire to hear new things. We hadn't long to wait. Garcia only allowed the wine time to find the proper spot while his deft, brown fingers carefully plucked a cigarette from Lewis' open case and

THIN FOLKS TURN FOOD INTO FLESH
Report Weight Increase of Ten to Twenty-five Pounds When Sargol Was Taken With Daily Meals.

If you are thin, run-down and under normal weight and would like to put on from ten to twenty-five pounds of good healthy flesh you must make your meals do you more good than they are doing now.

Flesh and muscular tissue must come from the food you eat but if your organs of assimilation are defective and you lack the power to turn food into flesh and fat much of the good of your meals must leave your body as waste.

If you are ten pounds or more underweight try eating a Sargol tablet with every meal and take another just before going to bed and try to see if this is true in your case. Weigh yourself before you begin and each ten days thereafter. Do this for sixty days and note the difference. Don't guess at results. Let the scales tell their story. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds and even more from this plan are by no means infrequent. Yet the action is perfectly natural and entirely harmless.

Sargol is a splendidly balanced combination of assimilative aids designed to increase the nourishment you obtain from your food and so to make your food develop healthy fat flesh and muscular tissue between your skin and bones. It can be obtained from Evans Drug Co., W. A. Evans, 33 N. 3rd St., or any leading druggists everywhere and each large package contains a guaranteed satisfactory weight increase or money back on sixty days use.

lighted it from Edgren's "plantation." Then came the story. It was brilliant with the lisp which, to Garcia's idea of dramatic expression, signified intense emotion.

"Chentelmens," he said, "it is now zat by ze grace only of ze saints you see me alive. It is now zat as I haf nefermore eggspact I again shall see my lof-fed wife an' my self in poverias. Ah! chentelmens, it is now zat you can know ze many dancers an' I haf been s'rough! But haf been brave! Garcia is brate always. Kef you shall not belief ass of zat Captain Stanwood—el cochino!"

The qualification of Stanwood for a prospective pork came in a very hiss.

"What's the matter with you and Stanwood?" inquired Edgren.

"Wiss me an' Captain Stanwood? Nossing! Excepta ziss: When I shall haf been captain of ze port off Habana nex' year, Captain Stanwood shall not sail his sheep here! Sat is all. 'E is much cochino!"

"What did he do?" persisted Edgren.

Garcia breathed deeply, again absent-mindedly drained Carey's claret glass and lighted another of Lewis' cigarettes.

"Zat, chentelmens, I now tell you," he said, leaning impressively over the table.

"'E iss gif me, Garcia, official interpreter for he's sheep, to a dam' pirate; zat iss what he iss do."

"'Eet is zis way. When I am tell to go in dat sheep Anita to Matanzas I am not glad. I am brate, yes, but I am not glad. Zat water I do not like; I, Garcia, am soldier of se ten year war. I am not sailor."

"All right; I am tell 'Garcia go. I go. It is much wafes zat day. Zat Anita she roll over; sea she roll back. I am seek—seek as hell. I am not half my coffee, my dinner, nor my cigarette zat day."

"Iss come Captain Stanwood an' say 'Garcia, you seek. Dring ziss. I drink—eet is cognac, maybe whittky—eet is a big glass full up. I do not want, but I drink. I am drunk as hell, Chentelmens, yes."

"We come at Matanzas, an' Captain Stanwood say, 'Garcia, we go now to Sagua. You make for me one pirate who iss show se way.' All right. I go to some good friend an' I say to heem to find some pirate; I do not know none."

"Zat pirate is come wiss one nigger to make se row in a little boat, a very little boat, chentelmens."

"It iss a Spaniard, zat pirate; I hear him talk, I know. He iss come on se Anita; hees boat is pick up by se ropes an' we go out se Bahia—vat you call bay—yes, to Sagua."

"It iss now dat, Captain Stanwood say to me, 'Garcia, come an' make talk for me wiss zat pirate.' We go up se stairs. I say for Captain Stanwood zat zat pirate, 'How much to bring se Anita to Sagua?'"

"Zat pirate he iss one banduol—one robbaire. He say, 'Eet is twenty cents—one hundred tollars to fetch zat sheep, sair.'"

"I say, 'Captain Stanwood, zat pirate iss ask twenty cents for make se Anita to Sagua. Zat is what se pirate hass said to me.'"

"Captain Stanwood he read hees book an' he say: 'Damn you, Garcia, you ees a dam' robbaire. You an' zat pirate make it up zat you rob me. Zis book say for se pirate to Sagua, five cents.'"

"He iss cuss awful, Captain Stanwood. I iss say, 'Sair you iss mistook. I am Garcia, stepson to se American correspondences. I iss not a robbaire.'"

"Captain Stanwood iss not listen. He iss ring one little bell an' se Anita she is stop. Zen he say, 'Mate! put zat dam' pirate boat in se water, an' put zat pirate an' zis dam' Garcia in him.'"

"Wot can I do, chentelmens? I am, brate; Garcia is always brate. But se night is black, an' zat pirate—he is a Spanish pirate an' no like se Cuban people. I say, 'Captain Stanwood, put away zat pirate—he is robbaire; but don't put away me, Garcia, stepson of se American correspondences.'"

"It ees no good, chentelmens. Zat mate puss me ovar on se ladder after zat pirate in zat little boat. Zen zat Anita blow her wheestle an' go away in se gulf."

"Ah! what a time ees zat, chentelmens! Se moon iss not, se stars iss not; se night iss black an' se waves iss mooch! I, Garcia, brate, yes, am left alone in zat little boat wiss zat pirate an' zat nigger vat make se row. Zat little boat iss peetch an' chump an' se watair iss come slap on my face!"

"Zat pirate he haf one big pistol, one big knife. He iss pull 'em out. I haf not eten one little pen-knife. Vat can I do? I only grab se machete of se Holy San Jose in my pockets an' pray like hell!"

"Zat pirate iss look at me an' say 'dam' you! Ziss is your fault! He iss say in Spanish. 'W'en he talk I know he iss Castilian. He say 'Theuta' for Centa, so I know.'"

"I am patriot of se ten years' war, chentelmens, an' I hate all Spanish mans. Captain Generale Blanco, he iss himself fear me an' arrest me if I am not make myself American ceetizen."

"All right. I am brate, but I am not fool. So I make to spik like zat pirate, Castilian. If he know I am Cuban hero—"

"Ze water iss splash in ze boat. Zat pirate iss say zen, 'Ball, dam' you, ball!'"

"I haf nossing to ball wiss but my hat—my new hat zat wass ze hat of poor Musgrave, who iss dead, beyond doubt, an' I, Garcia, am his heir."

"So I ball wiss zat good hat till it iss quite spoil—see? Another hat I must haf, an' my stepfasser, Senor Lewis, iss gif me zat."

"Well, in ze two hours, or three or six hour, we come by a light-house, where zere iss a hut—a little hut only—wiss a light in hees window. Eet iss not Matanzas; no, Matanzas iss yet far. Bet iss on a sand strip maybe two or seven kilos from Matanzas."

"But zere zat Pirate will stop. We tie ze boat and get on land, for which I am fall on my knees an' sank se Buena Dios. But while I do sat, se pirate swore behind and keeck my pants—my new pants vat were se pants of se poor Musgrave, now, wissout doubt, dead."

"Git up," say zat Pirate. "Damn you, git up an' make yourself to se house!"

"We iss come in zat house, chentelmens, an' zere iss four five more pirates—bad men—awful men on which to put se eye."

"My Pirate iss git some meat, some bread, some red wine. He puts some in front of me."

"'Eat, dam' you!' he iss say; 'eat an' drink zat red wine.'"

"Vat shall I then do, chentelmens? I sink surely it iss poisoned, but eef I am not eat I shall be kill some ozzer way, so I make myself to eat."

"Zen I am sit up an' watch all se long night!"

"Why didn't you walk across to Matanzas?" sharply queried Edgren. "They didn't let you, did they?"

"Vy I didn't walk? Ah! chentelmens, by se way iss much jungle. In zat jungle is Los Otrros—se insurgents of ze brate Generale Garcia—my uncle an' my namesake."

"But you, a loyal Cuban, needn't have feared your own people!"

"Ah! chentelmens, you are not know se Cuban people. Eef sey iss see me, Garcia, veteran of se ten years' war, come from sat Spanish pirate house, sey iss say what? Zis! Garcia he iss tradidore—traitore, you call. He iss betray us for centune."

"So, before I can explain, se machete iss on my neck! No, not I am brate, but I too, an' wiss. So I wait, never sleeping, all night, an' zen se morning iss come. I go wiss cose pirates in se big boat to ze Matanzas quay."

"Oh! eet iss such a narrow escape as no man has effer had, except only me—Garcia!"

"But they didn't kill you, after all?" questioned Edgren in disappointed tone.

TURN HAIR DARK

WITH SAGE TEA

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy and thick with a simple mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandma's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

HEARING IS BELIEVING!

THAT is the one proof—the final test of the qualities of a musical instrument. And measured by that test, the Columbia Grafonola superbly proves its right to the title of "The One Incomparable Instrument of Music."

TO HEAR it is to feel the thrill of absolute reality. Its tone is so pure, crystal-clear, and flawlessly true to life that it well-nigh makes the hearer forget the presence of an instrument.

TO HEAR it play a delicate, airy bit of chamber-music, then a tremendous orchestral symphony, is to gain a new conception of its marvelous range and power. No detail or shading of a theme is lost, and the peculiar tones of all instruments are returned with the musical values unaltered.

TO HEAR it with critical appreciation of its musical possibilities is truly to feel convinced that art and science could hardly go further in the reproduction of musical sound.

"Hearing is Believing." Put the Columbia Grafonola to the final test today. There is a Columbia dealer near you who will gladly arrange a demonstration.

ESTABLISHED IN 1820

Entered as Second Class Matter March 10, 1892, at the post office at Newark, Ohio, under Act of March 4, 1879.

Most of our politicians would favor appropriating some river and harbor money to deep Salt river.

Many people will join the thrift campaign in order to save money for a cash payment on an automobile.

Many anxious inquirers may consider themselves informed that neither of the planets now seen in our western heavens is the Star of Bethlehem.

After reading about the Mississippi floods that cover populous towns, some men went home and growled because they went over their rubbers at a street crossing.

Warnings are issued against kissing, in view of the danger of getting influenza. There would seem more danger in some cases of catching the diseases that affect painters.

The fact that 10 years ago the farmers wanted high taxes put on pleasure carriages, does not prove that they would stand for assessing automobiles and gasoline now.

The purchase of Home Run Baker by the New York Americans created more sensation in some quarters than the action looking toward buying the Nicaragua interoceanic canal strip.

Some of these legislators that are trying to make laws as to what women shall wear will perhaps go home and ask their wives to grant them the privilege of an evening out.

Henry Ford's peace trip was successful in giving a large party a very enjoyable vacation, and his anti-preparedness campaign of advertising will accomplish the even useful result of paying the salaries of editors, reporters, and type setters.

Willis Press Agents.

Ohio taxpayers are paying a pretty penny for the maintenance of Governor Willis' personal exploitation press bureau. The son of Beecher W. Waltemire, chairman of the State Public Utilities Commission, is purveyor of preserved statistics for the Ohio Republican Editorial Association, of which Merritt C. Speidel, Miami county newspaper editor, is president. Mr. Speidel is also a trustee of the State Library. Sherman A. Cuneo, of Upper Sandusky, formerly an editor, is taking up space in the Governor's office under the pretense of making a final report for the Ohio Commission to the Panama Pacific Exposition, which has gone out of existence. His salary is really earned by writing for the Willis bureau. Dr. Clarence Maris, of the State Fire Marshal's office, took the press agent for the Ohio League of Republican Clubs, and during the campaign in 1914 attached to Republican headquarters, also contributes to the cause. A. E. Huls, editor of the Logan Republican, who has a job in the State Industrial Commission, also does his share of the work of puffing and advertising the remarkable deeds of the good

Daily History Class—Feb. 23.

1792—Sir Joshua Reynolds, famous British portrait painter, died; born 1723.

1896—M. Zola convicted at Paris of libel in the Dreyfus case; sentence one year's imprisonment and a fine of 3,000 francs.

1904—The canal treaty with the republic of Panama ratified by the United States.

1915—Austrian government took over all grain and flour products in the empire and assumed control of food distribution.

lation passed by Congress since the civil war is the Reserve Bank bill, which for the first time in the history of the United States places its financial system upon a sound and scientific basis, to the vast improvement of business. Mr. Root says not a word about this triumph of Democratic statesmanship.

He is equally silent about President Wilson's high moral courage in demanding that this country keep its good faith with other nations by repealing the exemption granted to American vessels in the payment of Panama Canal tolls. This was one of the finest things ever done by an American President, but Elihu Root, who warmly supported Mr. Wilson in his appeals to Congress, is now mum on the subject.

The agitation over Trusts, which for a quarter of a century was a fruitful source of disturbance and unrest, has been entirely eliminated by the Trade Commission bill passed by a Democratic Congress. Mr. Root quite ignores it, as he does all the other excellent accomplishments of the Wilson Administration.

The ex-Senator indulges in legal quibbles over the attitude of this country toward Belgium. When Germany invaded Belgium Mr. Root was a United States Senator from New York and Congress was in session but he never expressed any disapproval of this Government's position. Now he is hot for war with Germany because of the events of August, 1914.

The overthrow of the Diaz regime in Mexico, the assassination of President Mader by Huerta's order and the long continued anarchy between those two events, all came under the Taft Administration, when Mr. Root was a Senator. Was he vocal then in denunciation of Mexican conditions? Not if we remember correctly. He acquiesced in the Taft policy which was continued by President Wilson.

Elihu Root is a great talker, but his sensitiveness about moral issues seems to be slow in developing. He was 18 months in getting excited over Belgium, and now warns up only because a Presidential campaign is approaching. Mr. Root's tactics make it easily understood why he has always been a favorite lawyer with big corporations.

Our New Treaty With Nicaragua.

(New York Sun.)

The Senate did a good day's work when it ratified the amended Bryan treaty with Nicaragua giving the United States perpetual and exclusive canal rights and control of Great Corn and Little Corn Islands and Fonseca Gulf for naval bases. Aside from the fact that the European Powers will be forever barred, assuming ratification by the party of the second part, from building through Nicaragua a canal to compete with the Panama waterway, the time is coming when another canal joining the Pacific and the Atlantic will be needed by commerce. The United States will construct it with incidental advantages and without having to consult any other Power. There is no time like the present, that is to say, during the great war in Europe, to consummate this important agreement with Nicaragua. That consideration no doubt was conclusive with the senate.

It may be taken for granted that Nicaragua will ratify the treaty. She is to receive $3,000,000—that is the present consideration—to be applied to her indebtedness or "other public purposes" in the advancement of her warfare against the United States. If a canal should be built by the United States the local benefits to Nicaragua would be incalculable. The acquisition of naval bases by lease is alone worth the price to be paid, the primary object being to increase the protection of the Panama Canal. After ratification by Nicaragua our Government will be wise to lose no time in preparing the naval bases required.

The World's Richest Man.

(Tit Bits.)

The distinction undoubtedly belongs to the Czar of Russia, of whom it has been said that he has so much money that nobody can count it. And it is a fact that the wealth that is his as controller of the Russian Church, and as ruler of all the Russias, including that of the members of his extremely wealthy family, would certainly be too great to count, including as it does all the wealth of Russia, which is estimated at $7,000,000,000.

The Czar's personal wealth, according to one statistical genius, works out at $110,000 a day, and should Russia get down to its last cent—or rather kopek—in the royal exchequer, Nicholas, single-handed, could keep the entire Russian army in the field for several weeks.

Most of the Czar's wealth is derived from landed possessions, of which he has nearly 150,000,000 acres, three-quarters of which is mining land. Siberia's mines are owned by the Czar, while his jewelry and art works are of fabulous worth. The Czar's state income is about $2,000,000, out of which, however, he has to provide for the expenses of his household, which includes the upkeep of more than a hundred palaces, to say nothing of the Russian court, with its 20,000 servants, 230 automobiles, 5,000 thoroughbred horses and an army of several thousand soldiers and detectives.

Quaker Quips.

(Philadelphia Record.)

Don't gamble a sure thing unless it has already happened.

One-half the world doesn't know how the other half bluffs.

You never can tell. Many a mighty small man feels that he is above reproach.

The Cynical Bachelor observes that the fellow who says he doesn't care whether he is married or not deserves to be.

We never know what we can do till we try. Some men would even attempt to sell nerve tonic to a book agent.

Boston's Objection To Brandeis.

(New York World.)

It must have occurred to the members of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate who are investigating the personal and professional character of Louis Brandeis, recently appointed a Justice of the United States Supreme Court, that the acquisition has gone far enough. In view of the charges made, it was in all respects proper that the inquiry should have been made. Yet even without defense on his part, the hostile testimony already received, covering the main points of the accusations, is not such as to raise any presumptions against him.

Practically everything revealed at this inquest was known before it began. Mr. Brandeis is not a favorite in the inner circles of Bostonian culture, banking and investment. Both as lawyer and man he has made them uneasy, and while a few of their representatives have been bold enough to go to Washington and say so, most of them have been content to write letters or sign remonstrances. Except for persons whose antagonism is easily accounted for, Mr. Brandeis's fitness for the bench has not been questioned. He seems to be entitled to a favorable report without further delay.

Spirit of the Press

Problem of the Poor.

The city is spending more than $10,000,000 a year on the Department of Charities and upon contributions to private charitable institutions. The sum has grown rapidly of late, yet it is still but one-fourth as much as is spent upon schools, including construction. Both in London and Berlin, before the war, relief of poverty was a far larger item of public expense than schools. —New York World.

The Tariff.

What did the McKinley tariff do to the Republican party in 1890 and 1892? What did the Payne-Aldrich tariff do to the Republicans in 1910, 1912 and 1914? Jonathan Bourne, Jr., press agent for the Republican party invites the country to remember what the Wilson tariff did to the Cleveland Administration, but he regrets that the country has not the repeated defeats of the Republicans on the tariff issue. "The Record" and other Democratic newspapers, however, will do what they can to remedy his oversight. —Philadelphia Record.

A Philo-sophical Farmer.

There is nothing like being philosophical. Wilson Marvin drove into town this morning with a load of wheat. About five miles out he lost the end-gate from his wagon, and before he discovered the loss had lost ten bushels of good wheat, worth a dollar a bushel. He says it is the duty of some one to feed the birds, which is a cheerful way to look at it. —Norton, Kas., Telegram.

Only One Guess.

If Col. Roosevelt were asked who he thought would be the ideal candidate, no one would give him more than one guess. —Washington Star.

Senator Smith of Georgia.

One of the nation's greatest needs for months past has been for a vocal-silencing attachment to the sound-silencing of Hoke Smith, United States Senator from Georgia, who was born with has developed into a "disease of words." In fact, Mr. Smith is the South's most vociferous demagogue, or we are badly mistaken. If we are mistaken, we will be overwhelmed with joy if someone will show us the error of our utterances. If we mistake not, Mr. Smith was the first "statesman" to reflect upon the South by frantically yelling of the cotton crop, also for the "buy-a-bale" movement, in which our section was placed in the light of a half-starved mendicant. Smith's ravings led many people to believe that Southerners would be chased to alms-houses because of the outbreak of the war, and he and others received a well-merited "call-down" from leading Southern publications. —Tampa Times.

Pointed Observations

Reports of Russia's military death seem to have been exaggerated. —Wall Street Journal.

If the British government bars smoking tobacco, cigars and cigarettes from Great Britain, and Tommy in the trenches continues to be plentifully supplied with those solaces by American sympathizers, force will have to be used to keep Britishers from enlisting. —New York Sun.

"The only bar in the way of peace," says the German Chancellor, "is the attitude of England." That is one of the best compliments old John Bull has received in a good many years. —Charleston News and Courier.

Where does Elihu Root's war speech leave William H. Taft, who was Mr. Root's candidate for President in 1912 and who has been a staunch supporter of President Wilson's policy toward the European belligerents? —New York World.

Submarine performances make big game a hole through international law look like a simple matter. —Washington Star.

Bryan brandishing the single term plank of the Baltimore platform as a weapon against Wilson will resemble a man hurling a last year's bird's nest at a battery of machine guns. —Washington Herald.

If the tides seem rather higher than usual for a few days, or if the waves beat upon one rock-bound coast with more than the ordinary vigor, it need cause no alarm. The Colonel has been on the bosom of the Atlantic Ocean, on his way to the West Indies. —Providence Journal.

Coming to Jones.

It seems there is a branch of study called "Vocational Arithmetic" taught in the Newark High School.

One of the exercises a few days ago was the rendering of a bill to a man from the hotel where he had been stopping, and following is the way it was looked upon by one member of the class:

"Due to Mr. and Mrs. Jones $6.00 for staying at the Hotel — three days."

Aunt Caline says: Eh Tit-wad is awful sick an' his wife is about wore out takin' care of him. But she says he's unconscious some of the time, thank goodness, an' that gives her a chaunst to rest up a mite.

Rippling Rhymes

Hurrying Days.

The march of time is swift and steady, the speeding days we cannot hold; six weeks of '15 gone already, before our New Year fairs are cold! It's truly hard to realize it, that six fat weeks have jumped the track; and yet no gentleman denies it, who keeps tab on the almanac. The spring will come before we know it, with all its wealth of growing greens, when every long-haired bughouse poet sends sonnets to the magazines. The summer will be with us shortly, to fill a want that's long been felt; then delegates who're stout and portly will wonder why they do not melt. And then the fall, both chill and balmy, its place in the procession swipes; and when the nights grow cold and clammy, we'll put up stoves and cuss the pipes. Then winter, arrogant and burly, will shake us with his frosty fins, and we will do our shopping early, before the Christmas rush begins. Thus go the days, and thus the seasons, they hurry past, to come no more; and there are fifty thousand reasons why we should make each moment score. —WALT MASON.

MANY TROUBLES DUE TO WEAK KIDNEYS

"It is no use advertising a medicine unless the medicine itself is good enough to back up the claims you make for it," said T. J. Evans, the popular druggist, to a Newark man. "On the other hand it is a pleasure to sell a medicine when my customers come in afterward and tell me how much good it has done them. And that is why I like to sell and recommend Solvax, the great kidney remedy. Ever since we first introduced Solvax in Newark our clerks have been so busy selling it that I have a hard time keeping a sufficient stock on hand. I have so much faith in this article that I am going to guarantee it in the future and will return the money to any purchaser of Solvax whom it does not help. This may seem rash but my customers have said so many good words in its favor that I do not expect to have many packages returned."

This shows great faith in Solvax. It really is a most unusual medicine because it overcomes the worst cases of kidney complaint by removing the cause. It goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys, and makes them pass off all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatic pains, stiffness and head the bladder and quickly ends all such troubles.

Nothing is more uncomfortable or hurts a person's perfect enjoyment of life more than troublesome kidneys and their attending evils. Use Solvax and get your full measure of benefit out of life.

In Milady's Boudoir

By Gwen Sears

An erect carriage should at all times be encouraged. No matter what position is decreed by fashion of the moment. An exercise to attain such a carriage is to stand with the back against one side of a door case. Standing so, raise the shoulders and work them backward, also raise on tip toes and press as much of the back against the case as possible. By raising and stretching the body one not only increases their height, but the straightening process is materially aided.

Legs and hips are strengthened by climbing hills and stairs, but some women are so situated that neither are available. For such I would suggest a stepladder. This, when not in use, may be folded up and put away. Climb up and down for five or ten minutes twice each day and you will be pleased with the result. The ladder should not be considered a luxury, but a household necessity. It saves climbing on chairs and enables one to reach the walls and ceilings on cleaning day.

The massaging and kneading of the bowels is good for women approaching middle age who find it becoming difficult to run up stairs as actively and easily as they did some years ago. Stand with the trunk of the body slightly bent forward at the hips. Begin with the hands firmly pressing at the pit of the stomach, and with a rotary motion work the hands to left, down, up to the right, and finish the movement at the point of starting.

Considerable pressure of the hands should be given. Continue the treatment for five minutes, then the bowels should be thoroughly kneaded by pressing on either sides with the fists clenched. Both of these treatments assist digestion, wear away the fat, and frequently overcome indigestion.

Your Boys and Girls

When a child begins with a cold, isolate it from the other children in the house and do not let it attend school until it is better. Not only is a cold contagious in itself, but in children a cold is often but the beginning of a contagious disease and it is not fair to other children to let them come in contact with a cold until it is proven to be nothing serious.

There is no better gargle or nose douche for a beginning inflammation than salt and water. Of course the solution must be weaker for the nose. Nose douches should be taken only on a doctor's advice, as the membrane of the nose is very delicate and the treatment must necessarily vary with the child. Never let the child go out of doors after spraying nose and throat.

NEURASTHENIA THAT FOLLOWS THE GRIP

Rest and a Tonic is the Proper Treatment Distinguished Medical Authority Says

There is a form of neurasthenia that follows the grip. Doctors call it "post-grippal" neurasthenia. One of the foremost medical authorities of New York city in a lecture in the international clinics, said:

"Broadly speaking, every victim of the grip will suffer from post-grippal neurasthenia also. Lowering of nervous tone with increased irritability is the most striking effect of the disease, language of mind and body, disturbed, fitful sleep and acute pains in the head and elsewhere. The treatment calls for rest and a tonic."

If you have had the grip and those symptoms again: "Languor of mind and body, disturbed, fitful sleep and acute pains in the head and elsewhere. If you have any or all of them it means that you are still suffering from the effects of the grip and that you will not be well and free from danger of relapse until your blood is built up."

The treatment, says the distinguished physician quoted above, is rest and a tonic. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a non-alcoholic tonic, are particularly suited for building up the blood and strengthening the nerves after an attack of grip. The rich red blood expels the lingering germs from the system and transforms despondent grip victims into cheerful, healthy, happy men and women.

If you have had the grip do not wait for a relapse or for the neurasthenia that so often follows grip but get a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now from the nearest drug store and begin the treatment at once.

On request we will send you a free pamphlet, "Building Up the Blood," which contains a chapter on the after-effects of the grip. Address the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Gums shrinking? Danger ahead!

Go now to a mirror and examine your mouth? Do your gums look "rinsed out," shrunken? Do you see a jagged appearance in the gum-line?

If so, see your dentist. He will tell you that you have pyorrhea, and that to save your teeth you will have to fight this dread disease at once.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentanel Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Foreign Relations Committee Takes up Case of Columbus Man Now Acting for United States.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 23.—Henry Prather Fletcher's nomination as ambassador to Mexico, was taken up for consideration today by the senate foreign relations committee. Prospects were that a prompt report would be made to the senate recommending confirmation, despite the fact that Republican members of the committee still are dissatisfied with President Wilson's recent report on the circumstances leading up to the recognition of the de facto government of Mexico headed by Venustiano Carranza. Some of them think it would be unwise to delay longer sending a diplomatic representative to Mexico to look after American interests.

Pending Mr. Fletcher's confirmation James Linn Rodgers, of Columbus, O., consul general at Havana, will act as special agent for the state department, representing the United States before the Carranza government.

Theatres

Alhambra Friday and Saturday.
After a long reign as one of the world's greatest stars of the stage, the celebrated Anna Held has at last gone into motion pictures, and will be presented for the first time upon the screen by the Oliver Morosco Photoplay Co. on the Paramount program in "Madame La Presidente."

This extraordinary production is the attraction at the Alhambra theater for Friday and Saturday. Aside from the $25,000 Oliver Morosco is reported to have paid Miss Held for the single picture, the private car he chartered to convey her to his Pacific coast studios, and the villa he provided in fashionable Pasadena, an even more domestic interest attaches to this picture. It now develops that the fat old comedian, who appears as the waiter in the spirited cafe scenes in the hotel Boulogne is none other than Max, her private chef.

"The Fourth Estate."
News—not in its concrete form, but in all its many phases—is the keynote of "The Fourth Estate," a

Many Recoveries From Lung Trouble

Eckman's Alternative has restored to health many sufferers from lung trouble. Read what it did in this case:

Wilmington, Del.
"Gentlemen:—In January, 1905, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, a leading practitioner, said that it was lung trouble. I got very weak. C. A. Lippincott, of Lippincott's Department Store, Wilmington, Del., recommended Eckman's Alternative that had done great good. I began taking it at once. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life." (Abbreviated.)

JAS. SQUIRES.
Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and up-building the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. Small size, 15c; regular size, $2. Sold by leading druggists. Write for booklet of recoveries.

hinge on news. It reeks with news—news and the multiple agencies employed in its collection, publication and distribution.

Few newspaper photoplays have met with success because of their glaring infidelity to actual conditions. "The Fourth Estate," however, has been purged of inconsistencies. Its scenes were made in the offices and the mechanical departments of the Chicago Herald, and the atmosphere of newspaperdom—that mysterious, little-known realm in which thousands labor that millions may know the daily entries in the world's diary—has been faithfully recorded.

No other profession or industry—call it which you will—has so many diversified types as newspaper making. No other vocation so completely humanizes its workers, those super-energized men and women whose sole purpose in life is to emancipate from chaos the news of the day. All of these types are portrayed in "The Fourth Estate."

It brings one face to face with conscienceless copy readers, adjective-oozing sob sisters, murderous-hearted city editors, haughty copy boys, stoop-shouldered make-up men, facile-penned rewrite men, and alert reporters, besides the many other types found in the news and mechanical ends of the huge, present-day paper.

Warren Kerrigan at the Gem.

After having their eyes upon many noted screen stars, the Universal Film Manufacturing company, decided that J. Warren Kerrigan, was best fitted to take the leading part in "Landon's Legacy," a story written by Meredith Nicholson. Mr. Kerrigan needs no introduction to the moving picture public, as he is the most handsome and popular moving picture actor in the country today. It is estimated that he receives from one hundred and fifty to two hundred letters from his admirers every day. With the able assistance of the noted star and under the remarkable direction of Otis Turner, "Landon's Legacy," is the best feature ever filmed by the Broadway Universal Features. "Landon's Legacy" will be shown at the Lyric theatre tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Chaplains Demands Met.

Charlie Chaplin has been engaged by the Mutual company. For several days—since Mr. Chaplin has been in New York, he has been the object of attention from many a film company. Naturally he has been in a position to make demands and it is said that the Mutual has met these. It is stated that the exorbitant terms provided for a bonus of $100,000 to Chaplin with or without his mustache, $10,000 a week salary and a percentage interest in the business.

Lauder in Many Moods and Funny in Them all.

When Harry Lauder arrived in San Francisco from Australia to start his last year's tour, he was immediately beset by vaudeville actors anxious for engagements with his tour. As a matter of fact he had carried his whole company with him from the Antipodes, where he had organized a complete and satisfactory troupe. So he answered the ambitious and needy performers with an unhesitating and uncompromising negative.

One of the vaudevillians was more persistent than the others. He insisted on explaining his act in detail and enlarging upon its specific points. Lauder saw that the only way to end the interview was to become emphatic. So he shouted:

"I don't want any act, I don't need any act, and if I did I would not take your act."

The actor drew himself up with injured dignity.

"You never heard my talent questioned," he roared.

"I never even heard it mentioned," answered Lauder.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels, and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

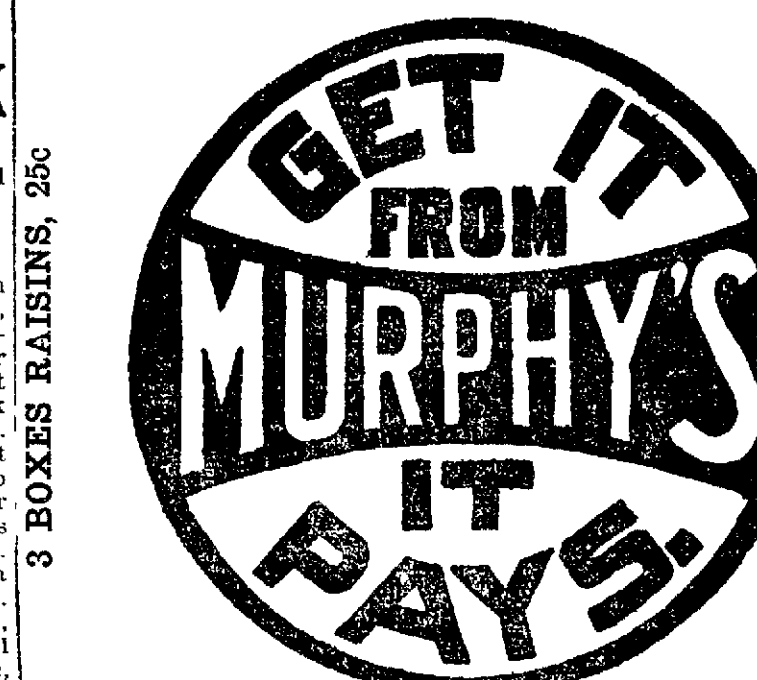

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

COLUMBUS FIVE LOSES; NEWARK SPEEDS 'EM UP

Newark High is claiming special honors after its victory over Columbus West High last night in an unusually exciting game by a score of 32 to 28. Newark is getting extra satisfaction from the fact that the local quintet came from behind and in the last ten minutes of play outsped the Columbus speeders and turned a seeming defeat into victory.

The end of the first half in which the teams played evenly saw Columbus leading with a 16-12 score. West made it 18 before Newark was able to score one on a foul and the Columbus boys had 20 before Newark overtook them.

Then Newark began to forge ahead. Clever basket shooting by "Fritz" Jones who caged five in the last half with Rawlings' foul shooting saved the day for Newark and kept the locals in the lead.

In the last 15 minutes many fouls were called, the Columbus boys being frequent offenders after Newark took the lead. Referee Rembold awarded Newark a point when a Columbus man interfered with Rawlings as he attempted a foul shot.

The crowd was the largest of the season overflowing onto the playing floor. The lineup and summary:

Newark 32. West 28.
Rawlings .. If .. Mathenev
Mayer-Thorp .. if .. Drago
Simms-D Jones .. Garrett
F Jones .. rg .. Cott
McLaughlin .. lg .. Cohagen

Field goals—C Mayer 3, Rawlings 2, Simms 1, F Jones 6, McLaughlin 1, Thorpe 1, Mathenev 5, Drago 1, Garrett 4, Cott 3. Foul goals—Rawlings 1, Garrett 2. Points awarded to Newark 1, Reteteer—Mr Rembold. Time of periods 20 minutes.

ADD BASKET BALL LEAD
In no game this season has the enthusiasm of the students been as great. A large delegation of girls occupied seats on the south side of the hall and under the leadership of a cheer leader full of pep made things lively. They made the boys on the opposite side of the hall hustle for honors in the noise-making contest. The high school band added to the din.

The game was attended by a large number of former students who have watched the record of the local high school team.

At times the crowd interfered some with the players on those parts of the floor where the spectators overflowed on to the playing floor.

Every game demonstrates the great need of the Newark school for a gymnasium. The present hall is not near large enough to accommodate the crowds.

The team also is handicapped when it plays out of the city. Trained on the small floor the team works as well as the team's accuracy in basket shooting suffers when the team meets other schools on larger courts.

If the sea water were to rise or the land fall 20 feet the Delaware and Chesapeake bays would disappear.

SOUCY OF HARVARD TO COACH BADGERS

Edward Soucy.

Edward Soucy, Harvard end last fall, has agreed to assist Dr. Paul Withington, former Harvard athlete, in coaching the University of Wisconsin eleven next fall. Soucy was one of the most brilliant players on the championship crimson team.

FOUL BY CHIP LOSES BOUT TO YOUNG AHEARN

New York, Feb. 23.—George Chip of New Castle, Pa. former middle weight champion, lost on a foul to Young Ahearn of this city in the fifth round of their 10 round match in Brooklyn yesterday. Chip knocked Ahearn down in the third round with a left hook to the jaw and he had a decided lead when Ahearn claimed a foul in the fifth round. The club's physician, after examining Ahearn stated that he had been hit low on the body and the referee allowed the claim of foul.

In another bout in Brooklyn today, Andre Anderson of the Chicago heavyweight, scored a technical knockout over Jim Stewart of Brooklyn, the latter's seconds tossing in the sponge in the sixth round. Anderson weighed 206 pounds and Stewart 212.

WESLEYAN PUTS OVER VICTORY ON WOOSTER QUINTET

Delaware, Feb. 23.—Ohio Wesleyan's basketball team last night put just the right sort of finish to the annual Washington birthday celebration of undergraduates at the luncheon. Myron T. Herick was the principal speaker. The five turned in a 29-23 victory over Wooster, which has been going well this season in the Ohio conference crowd. Captain Bonner made seven of his eight goals in the last half, which was almost an even one.

BOWSER RETURNS FROM FLINT MICH.; JACK JORDAN HERE

Jack Jordan, Rochester, N. Y. middleweight wrestler arrived in Newark Tuesday morning and is taking a light course of training for his match Thursday night with Paul Bowser at the Music Hall. Bowser returned Tuesday night from Flint, Mich., where he wrestled for 90 minutes with Frank Burns in a limit match neither man obtaining a fall.

Bowser's program for today and Thursday will be light gym work as the only preparation for his match with Jordan.

Jordan has been successful in his mat work this winter in New York State and comes to Newark with a record of being a capable man. He is proud of his ten years experience in the wrestling game.

A good card of preliminaries has been arranged for the match and the fact that the advance seat sale is large indicates that local fans expect a good match between Jordan and Bowser.

MT. VERNON HI HERE FRIDAY IN BASKETBALL

The center of the basketball universe is not far from Newark. Knox county's metropolis claims this honor. The claim will be defended in Newark Friday night when Mt. Vernon High's basketball quintet, which has met and defeated all comers this season, appears at Hickey Hall for a return game with Newark.

Mt. Vernon has played eight games and has two others on the schedule, one of which is Newark and the other Mapfield. A game with Columbus East High was played and won last night, this being an extra contest.

Newark has not been so fortunate though every game played at home has been won. Newark lost to Mt. Vernon and to Glenford, the latter through an attack of sleeping sickness in the first period falling so far behind that they couldn't catch up in the second half. At Mt. Vernon there was no alibi to offer other than the fact that the team was appearing on a strange floor.

Newark fresh from her victories over Columbus West and Delaware High Schools, feels justified in its belief that Mt. Vernon's jaunty craft also will strike a snag here.

At any rate the game will be a bitterly contested and there is no doubt that the capacity of Hickey Hall will be taxed.

MT. VERNON HIGH BEATS COLUMBUS EAST; SCORE LOW

Mt. Vernon, Feb. 23.—The Mt. Vernon High School defeated the East High School of Columbus here last night in a fast game by a score of 33 to 15. The first half was very close and interesting. At the end of the period Mt. Vernon led, 14 to 11 but in the last half the Mounts showed an improvement in their play and scored 19 points against their opponents seven. Blair led in scoring with eight field goals. Last Friday night Mt. Vernon defeated Cambridge at Cambridge in a rough game by a score of 36 to 33. Mounts did not put up their usual brand of basketball last night. This makes Mt. Vernon's ninth straight victory.

NEWARK BOWLERS IN CITY TOURNAY AT COLUMBUS

Sixty-nine bowling teams, the Pastimes of Newark being in the lot, are qualified and scheduled for the annual Columbus city bowling tournament that will begin next Saturday night on the Grand alleys in Parsons avenue. In the final round up of entries Monday there was a gratifying rush. Nine nights, with two squads to the evening, will be required to give all entrants a turn at the pins.

As a general rule, doubles and singles will be bowled the morning and afternoon following the performance of the five-men team of which the various pairs and individuals are members.

PHILLIES' PITCHING STAFF LOOKS STRONG ENOUGH TO DEFEND THE NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP THIS YEAR

Grover Cleveland Alexander, the leading pitcher in the National league in 1915 and the mainstay of the Phillies in the box for several seasons past, will be back on the mound for Pat Moran's team this year. Reports to the effect that Alexander's arm was "gone" and there was a chance of his having to give it a rest this season were dispelled, when Alexander wrote from his home in St. Paul, Nebraska, a few days ago that he was in fine fettle.

With Alexander, Chalmers, Mayer, Demaree, McQuillan, Oeschger and Tincup, all right-handers who have been with the team; Rixey and Baumgartner, left-handers, and the two youngsters, Fortune and Rhodes, the Phillies' pitching staff looks plenty strong enough to defend the National league championship this year. Manager Moran has already declared that he will not bid for any of the Federal league stars, but there are one or two on the list of the Chicago Cubs whom Moran could use if they are placed on sale by Manager Tinker.

SEVERAL TEAMS WANT PACKARD; SALE SATURDAY

Chicago, Feb. 23.—Following the meeting next Saturday which will wind up the affairs of the Federal league, players still controlled by the league will be offered for sale. Bidding for Gene Packard, the star left handed pitcher, promises to be keen, as several teams are said to be desirous of obtaining his services. Harry Sinclair, who controls the contracts of many Federal league stars will be at the meeting as will several owners of organized ball.

No new developments in the transfer of the Cleveland Americans to J. C. Dunn on this associates were made known today. Mr. Dunn admitted, however, he had talked with Robert McRoy, formerly the American League secretary, and later part owner of the Boston Red Sox. It is said McRoy is to purchase a small block of Cleveland stock and will be made secretary of the club.

Old B. & O. Guide.
Clem Cole in rumaging through an old atlas today came across an old B. & O. folder or guide, issued in 1876. It is in a good state of preservation and is certainly quite an antique compared to the elaborate folders issued today. Mr. Cole also found a copy of the Occidental, issued at Mt. Vernon, O., in July, 1877, by John W. Whitaker, who has quite a lengthy introduction editorial. There is also an article from the Boston Journal regarding the late Sunset Cox, an uncle of Fred Sites of this city, telling how Congressman Cox acquired the nickname of "Sunset." PHILADELPHIA'S CITY EMPLOYEES MAY NOT DRINK
Philadelphia, Feb. 23.—Following the lead of Chief Davis, of the Water Bureau, who on Monday ordered the 1,500 employees of that bureau to abstain from intoxicants during working hours, under pain of instant dismissal for violating the rule, James P. McLaughlin, chief of the Electrical Bureau today issued a similar order to the 1,000 men in his department. Director Wilson of the Department of Public Safety also announced that the policemen, firemen and other employees of his department to the number of 10,000, will receive notice of the "temperance during working hours," decree. The principal factor in the new attitude of hostility to the use of alcoholic liquors is the workmen's compensation law which recently became effective in Pennsylvania.

The World War a Year Ago Today—Feb. 23.
Russia acknowledged that the Twentieth corps of her Tenth army had been completely destroyed in East Prussia. The Germans isolated this command on Feb. 13, and it maintained a running fight until the 23d, when it was reduced to a handful. Zeppelin airships bombarded the port of Calais, France. Ten projectiles were dropped, killing five civilians, according to French report. Russians assumed the offensive at Grodno and Augustow, but were repulsed. United States cotton carrier Carib, from Charleston for Bremen, sunk in the North sea.

Y. M. C. A. STATE CONVENTION OPENS TODAY
Delegates are arriving in large numbers this afternoon to attend the forty-second state convention of the Ohio Young Men's Christian Association, and are registering at the Y. M. C. A. All are being given red ribbon badges and they are being assigned to the various hotels in the city. It is expected that over 150 delegates will be in attendance, with a number who are interested in the work, but who are not delegates. The first session will open at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the First Presbyterian church when the temporary organization will be formed and devotionals will be led by Percy B. Williams of Toledo. Nine delegates arrived early in the day from Zanesville, among the prominent men who already are here are: President Herbert Walch of Ohio Wesleyan and Dr. Andrew Timberman of Columbus. This evening at 6 o'clock a banquet will be given in the K. of P. hall, followed by a number of addresses. Over one hundred delegates already have registered at the local association.

BORROWED MONEY FROM HIMSELF; MADE A PROFIT
If you don't believe a man can borrow money from himself and make money on the transaction, just ask Harry Swisher. He can soon prove to the satisfaction of any one that it can be done, even if it is necessary to go to courts for aid in doing the job. As a creditor of A. L. Rawlings, whose affairs are now in the hands of receivers J. Howard Jones and Chas. W. Montgomery, appointed by the court, Mr. Swisher had coming from the settlement of the affairs a considerable sum of money. The receivers had on hand cash which could not be distributed to the creditors while the litigation was pending. Mr. Swisher applied to the court for an order to the receivers permitting them to invest the money. He then borrowed from the receivers the sum of $4,000 at 5 per cent. interest, or 1 per cent. lower than the usual rate charged by the banks. He not only saved the 1 per cent. but is also paying into his own pocket, a portion of the 5 per cent. interest which he is paying for use of the money. Mr. Swisher figures that he is making about 75 cents a day by the transaction.

WRECK VICTIMS RECOVER; DEATH LIST STILL TEN
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New Haven, Conn., Feb. 23.—The death list as the result of the rear-end collision of two passenger trains on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad in Milford yesterday stood at ten this morning. Of more than three score of injured passengers who have been or are present under medical observation at hospitals in Bridgeport and New Haven, all at hotels and private homes in both cities, and Milford, only Frank McNamara of Ansonia, who is in St. Raphael's hospital in this city is reported to be in a dangerous condition. McNamara was badly crushed and it is feared he will not live through the night. An inquest into the cause of the wreck was opened in a preliminary way by Coroner Mix this morning. Whether the coroner's inquiry will be open to the public has not yet been decided. At the inquiry today, Chief Inspector Trumbull of the public utilities commission, sat with Coroner Mix. Word came from Washington that a federal probe in the disaster will be opened.

Chalfant, who left his farm here and returned to his home at Yost Station, some weeks ago, was taken to Grant hospital at Columbus, where he recently underwent an operation. His condition is said to be satisfactory. A number attended the funeral of William Shaw at Somerset Wednesday. He died in Columbus after an operation. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw. BLUE SKY LAW TO BE TESTED IN FRIENDLY SUIT
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Columbus, Feb. 23.—Attorney General Turner today filed in the supreme court a friendly suit to determine the status of the blue sky bureau of the state banking department in view of the recent federal court decision holding the blue sky law unconstitutional. The case is brought in the name of Superintendents of Banks Harry T. Hall, to mandamus State Auditor Donahey to pay a bill of $4.60 expenses incurred by Mr. Hall for the blue sky bureau. Mr. Donahey held up the voucher purportedly to provide the necessary legal grounds for the suit. The blue sky bureau pending decision in the case will continue in suspension. It will receive applications for license under the law but will issue no license orders.

CHRONIC ILLS ARE BANISHED

GRATEFUL LOCAL WOMAN TELLS HOW QUICKLY NERV-WORTH DID HER THIS VALUED SERVICE.

The sale of Nerv-Worth in Newark continues unabated, thanks to the convincing endorsements given the Tonic by a well-known local user. Here is a statement made to the Evans drug store by Mrs. Mary J. Billingsley of No. 72 East Main street, Newark, which is repeated because of its value. Said Mrs. Billingsley:

"Two weeks ago I stopped at the Evans drug store, east side of the square, and asked for the best nerve and stomach remedy they had. Nerv-Worth was recommended. After taking only a few doses I began to feel better and now my chronic headaches are gone, my appetite is better, my sleep uninterrupted. (I go to sleep soon after retiring.) Before that I had suffered with nervous troubles since a year ago, after being operated upon, and I can truthfully say that Nerv-Worth has done wonders for me. I heartily recommend it to my friends or to anybody suffering with that tired, nervous, dyspeptic feeling."

Druggist T. J. Evans sells Nerv-Worth. Dollar back if the remedy doesn't help you. (Adv.)

Universal Demand.
"The trouble with our son," said father, "is that he wants his own way about everything." "Yes," replied mother, "and I suppose that's what he thinks about us."—Washington Star.

A Trace of Kindness.
He—Can't you find anything pleasant to say about the members of my family? She—Well, I remember they were all opposed to our marriage.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

WELL KNOWN TENTH STREET WOMAN HELPED

TANLAC BENEFITED SEVERAL CASES OF RHEUMATISM, LAGRIFFE, SLEEPLESSNESS AND POOR APETITE

Mrs. J. S. Ramsey Testifies to the Virtue of the Master Medicine Tanlac In Her Case.

From day to day the people of Newark are continuing to make strong and convincing statements of the Master Medicine Tanlac. One of the latest is Mrs. J. S. Ramsey who resides at 27 Tenth street and who is a well known woman. Mrs. Ramsey in speaking of her case said: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism, was worried by loss of sleep, had no appetite, was dizzy at times to such an extent that I was afraid to walk. All of this has been greatly benefited and I'm a different woman to what I was when I began to take Tanlac. I am now on my fourth bottle and I would not take anything for the benefit I have derived from it—for I'm sure it has put me on the road to ultimate recovery and I gladly recommend it."

Tanlac is equally as beneficial for stomach trouble, catarrh, the after effects of pneumonia and La Grippe and is a great nerve tonic.

Tanlac is demonstrated at Hall's Drug Store, and is for sale at Hebron by the Hebron Drug Co., at Granville by W. P. L. H. and at Pataskala by J. R. Strine.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

Campaign Bulletin No. 9. A woman, with a little baby! She was young looking and we found that she was only twenty years old. She had been married three years. Her husband died last March, leaving her a burden to carry alone.

The baby was born soon after the man died so the little three-year-old lady never saw her father. She is a charming baby, with blue eyes, and seems perfectly contented with her world. The little mother is so fearful that she will not be able to provide a comfortable home for the baby that she offered to give her away in adoption, but she could hardly tell the story for crying.

She came from Germany a few years ago but she speaks the language of her adopted home as well and has made good progress in learning our ways. She has the appearance of the neat, industrious German housewife.

There are plenty of homes in this community where her services would be at a premium, but as she suspects, the baby is not wanted there. We shall find a way and are so glad that we were given the privilege of giving service and shelter to these "strangers in our midst."

We wish to acknowledge the real neighbor who helped these needy ones. You whose gifts support this work are the real neighbors. This office is your center of friendly service to which widows and many other needy ones are directed. While writing this last paragraph calls have been received in behalf of a sick family in East Newark and another in the West Side.

Singularly, too, one call came over the Bell phone and the other over the Auto phone. You will be interested to know that both phones are donated by these companies, and the office to which the needy come for help and friendly direction, is also furnished free of charge. Are YOU investing in this neighborly service for Newark and Licking county? Yes, our calls are statewide. We are your servants to go out and visit YOUR sick, minister to your needy neighbor, and we must have your support in order to carry on our work. Are you helping? Would you like us to send you our report and literature explaining our work? Call at the office and see us, or telephone and we will respond in the best way we know.

Read the Bulletin tomorrow.

GREATEST

BENEFIT TO FOLLOW EUROPEAN WAR WILL BE NEW INTERNATIONALISM

To Take Place of Present Narrow Policy Columbia's President Tells Educators.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 23.—Addressing the delegates to the National Education Association, department of superintendence here last night, President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University, expressed his belief that the greatest benefit to follow the European War would be the development of a new internationalism to take the place of the narrow nationalism of the present day.

"August 1, the date that marked the opening of the present great war in Europe marked also the opening of the great struggle to determine whether our present civilization is to enter upon a period of social retrogression which will pull us back into even lower depths than those from which we have climbed," said President Butler.

This war is to determine whether the principle of nationality is to prove a blessing or a curse to the world. It is blind, unthinking fanaticism that is hurrying the nations of Europe against one another today. I have the faith to believe that the world is going to profit by its present dire experiences and that we are going forward to a time when men shall work together, plan together, and play together regardless of nationality, that prevailed in the past."

Two questions which for many years have been under consideration of American Educators occupied the sessions of forty-sixth annual meeting of the National Education Association department of superintendents here today. They were the improvement of educational condition in rural communities and the dividing of school courses into two six-year periods, elementary and advanced.

Dean S. S. Marquis, head of the sociological department of the Ford Motor company outlined the Ford idea in education.

Delegates to the annual meeting of the American association of teachers' agencies, were warned by Charles H. Judd, that the rise of teachers' agencies was explained by the fact there is lack of public control of appointments and that misuse of the service which the agencies offer would result in legislation making their function part of the public educational system of the states.

More than 4,000 delegates thus far have been enrolled with the prospect that the attendance would pass the 5,000 mark. Omaha, Kansas City, Minneapolis, and Milwaukee are contenders for the next meeting.

THE OFFICIAL FIFTH ANNUAL BUCKEYE JUNIOR CORN GROWING CONTEST FOR THE YEAR 1916

The rainbow comes down in Ohio. No blank counties this year. At least one trip is promised in each county.

No matter who enters these contests in any corner of the state, they will have at least two trips to try for. In most districts of the state there are four trips to try for.

The boy is king. The girl is queen. The State Board of Commerce, O. K. Shimansky, Secretary, offers a statewide trip for the champion corn grower of the whole state.

The State Board of Agriculture is running the only official Buckeye Corn Growing Contest in the state. This will be the fifth annual trip to the East. Set your faces toward the rising sun and get ready to go with us.

Congressmen Ricketts of Logan, Mooney of Woodfield, Hollingsworth of Cadiz, and Longworth of Cincinnati, already have their trips up to be contested for in their respective congressional districts.

The average number of bushels raised per acre by the Junior Corn Growers in 1915 was 80 bushels. The average cost of raising was 25 cents a bushel. If the selling price was 60 cents a bushel, then the $48 receipts less the $20 cost of raising would give a net profit of $28 per acre.

STATE CORN CHAMPIONS AT MT. VERNON—FOURTH ANNUAL BUCKEYE CORN SPECIAL, 1915.

acre for each acre of corn. The men in Ohio raised an average of 388 bushels per acre, and no one knows what their expenses were, neither their losses and profits.

The Board of Agriculture will give $25 in each county toward paying the expenses of one-half of a trip in the Corn Growing Contest, provided some one else in each county will pay the other $25. This trip to be county-wide and open to all boys and girls of the county.

The Board will also give $10 toward paying the expenses of the champion in the Domestic Science Contest in each county, provided some one else in the county donates the other $40 of this fund. Boys and girls can get entry blanks of their school superintendents at any time by writing to this office. The printed matter for the Domestic Science Contests in each county and in each city will be ready about April 1, and may be obtained by writing for them.

Good roads will change the looks of a whole family. A Corn Contest will change the looks of the whole farm.

Meet your County Agricultural Society and show them the duty of offering a trip in the Corn Contests.

How about your seed corn? Have you tested it? Is it thoroughbred? Will it help you and the soil to get a trip to Washington?

In some sections of the state Senior Contests are being conducted with the purpose in view of going on the trip. These contests are purely local and not under our rules. But we welcome them and all seniors on the trip.

Read the announcements of the cash prizes carefully. Granges look upon these contests as their legitimate enterprises. Let each Grange try a contest. Supervise it—raise the funds now.

Address all communications to J. R. Clarke, Director of Junior Contests, Columbus, Ohio.

BETTERMENT OF NORTH NEWARK PLANS OF ASSO.

The Progressive Brotherhood of North Newark met in regular session Monday evening, February 21 at 7:30 o'clock, with President C. L. Riley in the chair.

The object of this meeting was to complete the organization and to take up special work for the betterment of North Newark.

The following committees were appointed by the president—program, look-out and publicity.

The work of the program committee is to provide speakers or entertainment of some kind at each meeting and is composed of the following men: Rev. P. O. Orr, W. E. Warrington, E. B. Hebson and W. W. Litten.

The look-out committee is to look out for new improvements for the North End and taking these facts before the organization. The following men are on the committee: R. L. Tannehill, Rev. M. A. Lamp and F. P. Wynn.

Mr. George Devereaux will have charge of the publicity work.

The fixing of the gas rate that is now confronting our city council was discussed and on being moved and seconded it was decided that this organization go on record as being in favor of the present rate of 25 cents per thousand feet, and a ten per cent discount, and the following men were appointed—R. L. Tannehill, Charles O. Eagle and Howard Andrews—as a committee to look up the gas question and report at next meeting.

The program committee met and decided that on next meeting night the Maple Avenue C. U. Male Quartet would entertain the Brotherhood before the business meeting.

Four new members were taken in at this meeting, bringing the membership nearly up to the 50 mark.

We urge that all men of North Newark, north of Oak street, join this organization and boost North Newark.

"AMUSEMENTS" IS SUBJECT HANDLED BY EVANGELIST

The amusement question was handled without gloves by Evangelist MacDonald last night at the West End revival. He took the story of Saul, who was told to utterly slay the Amalekites. Saul spared Agag and the best of the flocks. When Samuel met him he blamed the people for his sin. He was a back slider and then tried to put on a long face and play the hypocrite. He was caught with the goods on him, and he had to own up. He disobeyed the word of the Lord and thereby lost his kingdom. Just like every one today who disobeys the word of God they lose their influence and even their hope of heaven. "To obey is better than sacrifice." Harken to God if you would be happy. Slay utterly. Kill your sin and pride or it will kill you. Give up the thing that is between you and Christ or you can never be saved. Just as well place your daughter in the red light district and train her there for a few years and expect her to be good when she grows up as to teach your children to play cards at home when they are young so they won't want to play away from home when they grow up. Some homes are the training school for the gambling room. The reason you have no joy in your Christian life is either because there is sin in your life or you are not working for Him. Slay the secret sin or it will slay you. Fess up like Saul and say "I have sinned," without it there is no hope. Saul lost his kingdom but saved his life. Sin will lose you your joy and influence. You can never be what God meant you to be before you sinned, but he can save you and use you if you will only surrender and give Him a chance.

Sermon Sayings.

Sin always gets people in wrong. It takes God to get them right again. There is no halfway house with God. It is slay utterly.

Don't blame God for your own sins. Punishment is self-inflicted. Blame yourself.

Conscience is an alarm bell from which there is no escape. It takes more courage to get rid of the little secret sins than some big ones.

When a man blames some one else for his failures he is only trying to cover up some secret sin.

When a man puts on a long face and tells you what a good fellow he is it is time to watch your pocket-book.

Sin was in the garden before it was in the gutter. If you want to find "highclass" sin look in the garden or parlor not in the slums.

You sin in your brain before you sin in your body. Watch your thoughts.

Whatever is between you and Christ must be given up before you can be saved.

Burn your cards or your Bibles. They don't go together.

A girl who dances may still be pure, but she may not be able to say as much after the next dance.

You never saw a good card player that was a good hard prayer.

You never saw a popular dancer that ever won any souls to Christ. The two never go together.

You can't dance with the devil and keep your mind pure.

No girl can play tag with the devil without getting caught.

You can't chase the devil around the stump very long without slipping or falling.

To get right with God and stay right you must slay utterly, every sin, both secret and known.

Announcements.

Three more confessions last night. Young people's social after service tonight.

Subject tonight: "The Chance of a Life Time." Two characters contrasted.

All young people invited to remain for the social tonight.

ANOTHER STEEL PLANT COSTING MILLION, BEGUN.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 23.—With the zinc plant of the United States Steel corporation scarcely completed at Sonora, near here, at a cost of $3,000,000, work was commenced today on a $1,000,000 addition for the manufacture of muriatic acid. The output of the acid works, it was stated, would be fifty tons a day, enough for the corporation's use in the manufacture of galvanized iron.

AMERICAN PAINTING BRINGS HIGHEST BID.

New York, Feb. 23.—The work of an American artist, the painting by Ralph Albert Blakelock, entitled "Moonlight" brought the highest bid in the auction sale of the art collection of Catholina Lambert yesterday. An agent of the Toledo art museum paid $20,000 for the picture.

MOTORCYCLE SKIDS; YOUTH WAS INJURED

Otto Parsons, 20, of Zanesville, suffered the fracture of both bones of the lower right leg Tuesday afternoon when a motorcycle which he and Lovett Bates also of Zanesville were riding skidded on the Jacktown pike four miles south of Newark.

Bates was not injured beyond a few minor bruises. Criss Bros. ambulance was called and Parsons was taken to his home. Beyond the injury to his leg Parsons was not seriously hurt.

J. S. HERZOG AND OTHERS PURCHASE SIMPSON FOUNDRY

A business change of considerable importance takes place March first when the stock and control of The Simpson Foundry Company passes from its present ownership and management to J. S. Herzog and associates.

The Company has been under its present management for the past twenty years and has built up a profitable business by reason of the quality of castings made by them.

In addition to a large output of glass factory molds the present company does considerable business in general or jobbing foundry lines and has an excellent reputation among glass factories of Illinois, Ohio West Virginia where its work is well known.

Mr. J. S. Herzog who will have charge of the plant under the new management has had considerable manufacturing experience. For seven years he has had charge of the Hotophane Glass Company plant in the production of illuminating glassware and has therefore a thorough understanding of the requirements in making casting for the glass business.

Present indications are that the plant will be operated to its capacity which will mean practically doubling the work. Newark is therefore fortunate in this change which means additional employment as well as establishing Newark more firmly as a manufacturing city.

Mr. W. L. Smith who has been with the company since its organization will continue with the new management supervising the production end of the business.

SELECT SITE FOR A MEMORIAL TO G. WASHINGTON

(Associated Press Telegram)

Alexandria, Va., Feb. 23.—Members of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial association left for their homes today after selecting a site for the proposed memorial which is to take the form of a magnificent temple for housing relics and pictures of Washington.

It will be erected on the crest of Shooters Hill, where the capital of the United States would have been built, historians relate, but for the modesty of Washington, who feared it might possibly be suspected that an effort was being made to enhance the value of his real estate holdings south of the Potomac.
